

Trinity Western University is looking for an Instructional Designer to design and develop courses that provide engaging learning experiences in online and/or blended learning environments.

This is a full-time job opportunity

Major responsibilities:

- Consult with faculty subject matter experts and academic program directors to develop online and blended courses
- Provide efficient and effective project management for the development of online and blended courses
- Guide the development of course-level learning outcomes in alignment with program and institutional outcomes.

Qualifications:

- Master's degree in online education, instructional design, or a relevant discipline.
- Experience in leading instructional design projects in higher education.
- Experience with a wide variety of digital learning environments.

In addition, the successful candidate will be a dedicated and mature evangelical Christian who is passionate about the values and mission of Trinity Western University and committed to the Community Covenant and Statement of Faith.

Submit your resume and cover letter online at:

<http://www.twu.ca/divisions/hr/join/staff-positions.html>

Established in 1962, Trinity Western University (TWU) is a fully accredited institution and a member of Universities Canada since 1984. Trinity Western offers 42 undergraduate and 18 graduate degree programs. More importantly, lives are changed at TWU through its whole-person, Christ-centred approach to education. With a wide array of programs, TWU equips leaders of character and competence to make a positive impact in the lives of others.